

Launch of the IED website

I am especially pleased to introduce you the new website of the IED - Institute of European Democrats, a new and independent Research Institute based in Brussels.

Our intention was to create a flexible and efficient tool, containing information on the activities of our Institute. The website will be constantly updated with interesting news on the European political and social agenda; information, papers and documents on the IED programmes and research areas.

My hope is that our site will help us to promote a better understanding of the core aspects of the European integration process and the main EU common policies.

Moreover, through the website, we look for an active contribution and a direct participation to our activities from the European citizens.

We will work in favour of a united and efficient Europe.

Explore it and enjoy it!

Luca Bader
