

IED at Policy Network Seminar

The Institute of European Democrats - IED was represented by Luca Bader, Chief Executive Officer, in the event: "A More "Liberal" Social Democracy? - Seeking fairness and progress in the global age". The seminar has been held in London on September 15th and 16 th.

The two day seminar organised by Policy Network in partnership with Friedrich Ebert Stiftung brought together some of the leading progressive thinkers from the UK and over a dozen other European countries. The event aimed to stress the necessity of a new project for the centre-left in Europe.

The Italian newspaper "Europa" quoted the participation of our Institute to this important event.

Read the article