

The case of the Chilean democracy

The Institute of European Democrats has organised a meeting focused on the political situation in Chile. This initiative has been held in Brussels on December the 5th, 2008.

The meeting titled "The case of the Chilean democracy: in between rightwing and leftwing populisms in Latin America" took place with the participation of Chilean and European experts and political representatives.

"The case of the Chilean democracy..."