

THE FUTURE OF ENERGY UNION

European integration, Italian opportunities and Regions contribution

Cagliari, 27th of May 2016
Sala Congressi - Fondazione di Sardegna

Agenda

h 14.45 Registration

h 15.00 Opening remarks

Massimo Zedda Mayor of Cagliari

Introduction

Francesco Rutelli President of the Fondazione Centro per un Futuro Sostenibile

Energy Union: a strong reality for the Mediterranean

Samuele Furfari Adviser to Director General, DG Energy, European Commission

European Regions contribution to Sustainable Development: Sardinia in the middle of the Mediterranean Sea

Francesco Pigliaru President of the Autonomous Region of Sardinia and President of ENVE at the CoR

Mediterranean Energies: technological, economic and decision making obstacles to Energy Union

Introduction: Alessandro Lanza ENEA, CMCC, IEFE Bocconi University

Electricity infrastructure and States interconnections: new production scenarios

Catia Bastioli CEO of Novamont and Chairman of Terna

Towards a unique Energy Market: prospectives for enterprises and users

Carlo Bagnasco CEO of Energetic Source S.p.a

Towards an European Energy Union. The Contribution of the Regions

Eloy Álvarez Pelegrý Head of Energy Department, Orkestra Basque Institute of Competitiveness, Deusto University

Roadmap to Marrakech COP22: the implementation of the Paris Agreement

Yann Wehring Spokesman MoDem and former Leader of the political party Les Verts

h 19.00 Conclusions

RSVP

segreteria@futurosostenibile.org