

Contributions for a didactics on the Exhibition:
"Rising from destruction. Ebla, Nimrud, Palmyra "

7th December 2016
Rome, Colosseum
from 10:45 to 13:15

Meetings to confront East and West through outstanding vestiges of a great heritage of the past. The exhibition has been set up inside the Colosseum, a unique monument witnessing a great empire. Now it became also a symbol of a country capable of welcoming, incorporating and storytelling. Culture produces dialogue, dialogue leads to civil confrontation, the civil confrontation to conciliatory policies and thus to peace between peoples.

Target audience: students of secondary high schools (150 pupils in all).

Students will be welcomed at the entrance and with the help of educators will be accompanied in the arena.

11:00 to 11:20 welcome and speech by the Syrian researcher Ahmed Kzzo in the arena of the Colosseum .

Guided tour to the Exhibiton, "Rising from Destruction" and to the Colosseum 12.30 to 13:15 meeting with the writer Luca Attanasio, author of Il Bagaglio at the end of the visit.

With the financial support of the European Parliament