

PROGRAMME (in CET Brussels time)

Event language: Spanish with translation into English

17:00-17:05

Welcome address

Maria Luz SUÁREZ

-Director, Department of International Relations and Humanities, University of Deusto

17:05-17:15

Introduction to the Webinar

Steffen Bay RASMUSSEN

-Professor of International Relations, University of Deusto, moderator of the event

Mikel BURZAKO

-Managing Director, IED

17:15-17:45

Session 1: The new global architecture and the role of the EU

- Is the global architecture changing towards increased multilateralism?
- Are we moving towards more conflict or a more peaceful world?
- What role is there for the EU in this new world order?

Moderator: Steffen Bay RASMUSSEN, University of Deusto

Speakers:

Juan Antonio MARCH – Former ambassador of Spain to the UN, WTO and several states and author of “Momentum: on the threshold of the New World” (Espurna, 2020)

Mikel BURZAKO - Managing Director, IED

17:45-18:15

Session 2: Artificial intelligence, human intelligence and societal change

- How are the changes in global order related to the internal transformation of societies?
- What role does artificial intelligence play in this transformation?
- Who are the central actors in contemporary dynamics of change?

Moderator: Steffen Bay RASMUSSEN, University of Deusto

Speakers:

Juan Antonio MARCH – Former ambassador of Spain to the UN, WTO and several states and author of “Momentum: on the threshold of the New World” (Espurna, 2020)

Mikel BURZAKO - Managing Director, IED

18:15-19:00

Q&A with the Audience

Questions may be addressed in English or Spanish

Wrap-up and conclusion

