

Wednesday - March 8

20:30 Dinner at the International Museum of Contemporary Art "Castillo de San José" <https://cactlanzarote.com/centro/castillo-de-san-jose/>

Thursday - March 9

09:30 Opening of the Seminar in the Arrecife Gran Hotel
Fernando Clavijo Batlle, senator for the Autonomous Community of the Canary Islands
Mikel Burzako, Director of the Institute of European Democrats

09:45 Agenda 2030: Cooperation between territories to weave alliances and create networks to achieve common and fundamental objectives. The role of young people in leading change in the European Union in terms of sustainability.

- Coordinator: Iñigo Arbiol, Department of International Relations and Humanities of the University of Deusto
- Konstantinos Chatzoglou, Greece
- Rafael Nunes, Member of the Parliament of Madeira
- Midalia Machín, councilor of the Cabildo Insular de Lanzarote

11:30 Coffee break

12:00 Blue economy for EU islands: promoting the objectives of the clean energy transition. New employability niches for young people linked to the climate transition.

- Coordinator: Aridane González, Institute of Oceanography and Global Change, IOCAG, and University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria.
- Cátia Gouveia, University of Madeira
- Arianna Traviglia, Coordinator of the Cultural Heritage Centre, Italian Institute of Technology, Italy
- Christiana Eftychiou, University of Cyprus

13:45 Closing remarks
▪ Echedey Eugenio, councillor of the City Council of Arrecife

14:00 Light lunch at the Arrecife Gran Hotel